Dear Friend:

We are pleased to share with you that President Corry Hong and Ambassador Kathleen Stephens have been nominated to receive the ICAS Annual Liberty Award 2012 for their "outstanding professional achievements, distinguished service to the nation and people and exemplary leadership" thus advancing great humanistic values; Life, Liberty and Pursuit of Happiness, and they will be honoured at the ICAS Annual Liberty Award Dinner 2012.

President Hong is the founder, President and Chief Executive Officer of UNICOM Global. He founded the Company 31 years ago and has built it from a single software product and one employee to a global business enterprise that currently holds and manages 25 corporate entities with offices and operations around the world. Corry is an accomplished leader in IT industry, a prominent business pioneer, and a consummate entrepreneur and a trusted mentor to many aspiring young people.

Ambassador Kathleen Stephens is a U.S. Foreign Service officer with the rank of Career Minister. She is currently a Senior Associate at the Institute for the Study of Diplomacy at Georgetown University. Kathy was Acting Under Secretary of State for Public Diplomacy and Public Affairs, February to April 2012. And, she was U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Korea, 2008 to 2011. Prior to that Kathy served numerous senior diplomatic posts around the world. No less impressively, she is an avid tennis player.

Both Corry and Kathy, respectively, embody the great American national spirit and humanitarian torch for peace and prosperity in a truer sense of the inimitable legacy and tradition of the great American values.

Tonight, it is indeed our privilege to honour them and share this moment with our friends, colleagues, and esteemed guests gathered here at this hour in this venerable chamber.

Thank you.
