Dear Friends:

I am pleased to bring greetings to the George Mason University Center for Korean Studies and the Institute for Corean-American Studies (ICAS) as you gather for this year's Summer Symposium.

The ICAS continues to be a respected educational resource that promotes multilateral relations between the United States and Asia-Pacific rim nations. Over the years, you have brought together many sectors of our society and built strong relationships and mutual understanding around the globe.

I commend your ongoing work throughout our communities. Best wishes for a rewarding event.

Sincerely,
